Introduction

System Bookings is dedicated to eradicating modern slavery and human trafficking in all aspects of our business operations and supply chains. This policy outlines our commitment to identifying, preventing, and addressing any instances of modern slavery or human trafficking within our organization and among our business partners.

Policy Statement

At System Bookings, we stand firmly against modern slavery and human trafficking. We uphold the principles of ethical conduct and respect for human rights in all our activities, and we expect our employees, suppliers, and business partners to share in this commitment.

Our Commitment

We will regularly assess potential risks within our operations and supply chain to ensure they are free from modern slavery and human trafficking.

We will establish robust measures to prevent modern slavery and human trafficking, including thorough due diligence processes when selecting and monitoring suppliers.

We will educate and engage our employees, suppliers, and business partners to recognize and report any concerns related to modern slavery or human trafficking.

We will provide training to enhance awareness among our workforce and partners about the risks associated with modern slavery and human trafficking and how to address them.

We will promptly and thoroughly investigate any allegations of modern slavery or human trafficking, taking appropriate action if violations are identified.

Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy

We will continuously review and enhance our policies and practices to ensure their effectiveness in preventing modern slavery and human trafficking.

Supplier Responsibility

We expect our suppliers and business partners to uphold the principles of this policy. We will collaborate with them to assess and mitigate potential risks related to modern slavery and human trafficking within their operations and supply chains.
